

North American Book Awards Announces 2017 Q3 Award Winners

North American Book Awards is an event where authors are recognized for professionalism in publishing and where discoverability within global reader communities is enhanced. North American Book Awards designations in gold, silver, and bronze are posted by authors on Amazon and circulated as a part of all promotional and publicity efforts. (NorthAmericanBookAwards.com)

North American Book Awards is excited to offer a year-round format of quarterly judging and winner announcements, each calendar year. We are pleased to announce 3rd quarter winners of the 2017 North American Book Awards as follows:

Children's Picture Books

Insanely Inspiring Writing Prompts for Littles, Middles & Biggles—Stacy Lytle (Bronze Medal)

Children's Education

The Glitter Keeper—Stacey Lytle (Silver Medal)

Humor/Fiction

MIDMEN—Steve Ochs (Bronze Medal)

Business Leadership and Management

Expensive Sentences—Jack Quarles (Gold Medal)

Lead Right for Your Company's Type—William E. Schneider (Silver Medal)

Business Entrepreneurship

Expensive Sentences—Jack Quarles (Gold Medal)

Kaleidoscope: Delivering Innovative Service That Sparkles—Chip B. Bell (Silver Medal)

Business Finance

Expensive Sentences—Jack Quarles (Gold Medal)

For authors, publishers, and publicists who would like to enter North American Book Awards, see the following entry deadlines and winner announcements below:

Q4 entry deadline: December 27, 2017 Winner announcement: January 31, 2018

To enter please visit our website northamericanbookawards.com or email http://northamericanbookawards@gmail.com.